

TALK B4 Sex Resources

Advocates for Youth: An organization advocating for sexual health policies and programs for youth

AMAZE: A website with online sex education resources for teens and adults

Bedsider: An online birth control support network

Gender Spectrum: An organization working to create gender sensitive and inclusive environments

Get Tested: A website that lists testing sites for HIV, STIs, and Hepatitis

GLSEN: An organization working to ensure LGBTQ+ students can learn and grow in schools free from bullying and harassment

Go Ask Alice: A website for adolescents that answers a variety of health questions and is affiliated with Columbia University

HIV.gov: A federal government website providing HIV information and resources

It's Your Sex Life: A resource supporting young people in making responsible decisions about their sexual health

Love is Respect: A national resource with the goal of disrupting and preventing unhealthy relationships and intimate partner violence

Love Matters: A website focusing on love, sex, and relationships for young adults around the world

PFLAG: The largest organization for LGBTQ+ people, their parents and families, and their allies

Planned Parenthood: A resource for reproductive health care, sex education, and information

Power to Decide: An organization helping young people make informed decisions about sex

RAINN: The Rape, Abuse and Incest National Network that is the nation's largest anti-sexual violence organization

Safe Teens: A teenager friendly website with a variety of sexual information

Scarleteen: A website with sexuality and relationship information for teens and emerging adults

Sex, Etc: A website created by teens for teens providing accurate sexual health information

SIECUS: The Sexuality Information and Education Council of the United States

Stop It Now: An organization with the mission of preventing the sexual abuse of children

Teen Health: A teenager friendly website offering a variety of health information

Trans Student Education Resources: A youth led organization with the mission of transforming educational environment for trans and gender non-conforming students

The Trevor Project: An organization with intervention and suicide prevention services for LGBTQ youth